Our 2025 Season has something for everyone!

In 1961, in a historic but dilapidated church, a group of dedicated theatre artists founded the Arrow Rock Lyceum Theatre. 64 years later, The Lyceum continues to flourish, bringing together professional artists from around the country to create Broadway-caliber productions and electrifying special events for nearly 30,000 patrons each year.

For our 2025 season, we're excited to introduce you to some famously frozen Disney princesses; a legally blonde lawyer and her trusty dog, Bruiser; a couple of grumpy Midwesterners; a pair of battling little league coaches; an entire town of generous Canadians; and the murderously funny Brewster family.

Explore the charming Village of Arrow Rock, then join us in our intimate 416-seat theatre and experience the incredible music, the uproarious laughter, and the pure magic of live theatre.

We can't wait to see you!

Disney's magical tale of sisters battling the elements – and each other – to find the true meaning of family.

Follow fearless Anna, the princess of Arendelle, as she sets off on an epic journey to find her estranged sister Elsa, whose icy powers have trapped their kingdom in eternal winter. With the help of iceman Kristoff, his reindeer Sven, and the snowman Olaf, can Anna bring her sister home? Based on the Academy Award-winning animated film, Disney's Frozen includes the film's beloved songs such as "Let it Go" and "For the First Time in Forever," along with new music written exclusively for the stage. Full of magic and humor, Frozen is a powerful tale of sisterhood, acceptance, and finding the real meaning of true love.

LEGALLY BLONDE

The Musical

June 27 - July 6

Music and Lyrics by Laurence O'Keefe and Nell Benjamin | Book by Heather Hach
Based on the novel by Amanda Brown and the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture

Omigod you guys! Elle Woods is going to Harvard!

When the fashion-forward and frivolous Elle Woods gets dumped by her boyfriend, she's determined to get him back – even if it means leaving her California sorority sisters behind and enrolling in Harvard Law School. Elle's plucky personality doesn't fit into this stuffy new world, but thanks to the support of new friends (and her trusty dog, Bruiser), Elle discovers her strengths and her smarts and flips a few negative first impressions on their heads. At its fluffy, pink core, this effervescent musical based on the beloved movie reminds us that you can achieve your dreams through hard work, persistence, and staying true to yourself.

Adapted from the Warner Bros. motion picture written by Mark Steven Johnson
Additional orchestrations by Phil Reno

Fasten your seat belts. It's going to be a grumpy ride!

Two curmudgeonly neighbors have been feuding for 50 years. Their rivalry intensifies when they both fall for a charming and eccentric woman who moves in across the street. As these two cantankerous competitors fire off one-liners and hilarious songs in equal measure, they might just find a resolution to their long-standing differences. Based on the classic 1993 Warner Brothers film starring Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, and Ann-Margret, this hilarious, engaging, and unexpectedly heartwarming stage adaptation captures these lovably crotchety characters through twinkling humor, great songs, and the affectionate depiction of a small Midwestern town and its quirky residents.

By Richard Dresser

A homerun of a comedy!

Don is a “win at all costs” little league coach, who believes victory is the most important thing – in baseball and in life. Michael is his somewhat nerdy assistant coach, who thinks the kids are already winners just for showing up. Don’s kid is the star pitcher of the team. Michael’s kid can barely remember to keep his shoelaces tied. Their clashing beliefs about fatherhood and about baseball lead to battles, on and off the field. But as this funny, acerbic, and touching play unfolds, they discover that their shared love of the game is more important than whether or not they’re on the same page of the playbook.

COMEDY, RATED PG-13

The inspiring hit musical that reminds us when things are at their worst, people can be at their best.

In the aftermath of 9/11, flights into New York City were rerouted, and 7,000 airline passengers were suddenly stranded in the small Canadian town of Gander. The population nearly doubled, but residents welcomed these unexpected visitors with open arms, providing food, shelter, and comfort. With its folk and country influenced pop score, Come From Away tells the funny and gripping true story of strangers who became friends and offered each other hope and humanity during some of history's darkest days. Expect a few tears...and laughter through those tears...during this triumphant tale that the New York Times called a "big bear hug of a musical."

What do you do when your eccentric family has actual skeletons in the closet?

Mortimer Brewster may be the only sane member of his family. One brother thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt and digs the Panama Canal in the cellar. His other brother keeps undergoing ghastly plastic surgeries to hide from the police. And his adorably sweet spinster aunts take in lonely boarders...and dispose of them with their special elderberry wine. To make matters worse, Mortimer has fallen in love with Elaine, the minister's daughter from next door, and a houseful of murderous relatives probably won't help the relationship. This beloved screwball comedy set in 1940s Brooklyn will leave you laughing — and saying no to the elderberry wine!
