Our 2026 Season has something for everyone!

In 1961, in a historic but dilapidated church, a group of dedicated theatre artists founded the Arrow Rock Lyceum Theatre. Sixty-five years later, The Lyceum continues to thrive, bringing together professional artists from around the country to create Broadway-caliber productions and electrifying special events for nearly 30,000 patrons each year.

For our 2026 season, we'll win your heart with "Annie," celebrate America's 250th birthday with "1776," take a second look at some familiar fairy tales, introduce you to a group of unforgettable Southern women, reinvent a musical in six different ways, and thrill you with one of Agatha Christie's best mysteries.

Explore the charming Village of Arrow Rock, then join us in our intimate 416-seat theatre and experience the incredible music, the uproarious laughter, and the pure magic of live theatre.

We can't wait to see you!

Annie turns 50 this year, but everyone's favorite little orphan doesn't look a day over 10! The beloved musical, featuring timeless songs like "Tomorrow" and "It's a Hard Knock Life," follows the fearless Annie on her journey from a rundown New York City orphanage to the opulent estate of billionaire Oliver Warbucks. Full of laughter, hope, and memorable tunes, Annie has captured the hearts of audiences for five decades. Don't miss your chance to be part of the celebration when Annie, her beloved dog Sandy, and a stellar cast of singers and dancers light up the Lyceum stage.

Celebrate America's 250th birthday with a powerful, exhilarating 1776—the Tony Award-winning musical that brings the birth of a nation to thrilling life! Join John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and the rest of the founding fathers in their fierce, funny, and passionate battle to declare independence. Packed with clever dialogue, unforgettable characters, and a bold, stirring score, 1776 is more relevant than ever—reminding us of the courage, conflict and compromise that shaped the United States. This is not just a show—it's a celebration of the American spirit.

Five musicals for the price of one! The Musical of Musicals: The Musical is a hilarious love letter to Broadway, where one simple plot—a tenant who can't pay the rent—gets reimagined in the iconic styles of Rodgers & Hammerstein, Stephen Sondheim, Jerry Herman, Andrew Lloyd Webber, and Kander & Ebb. Bursting with clever parody and musical theatre in-jokes, this side-splitting show is a must-see for theatre lovers and comedy fans alike. Whether you're a seasoned Broadway buff or just love a good laugh, this romp through the greats will have you grinning from overture to final bow!

By Agatha Christie

Ten strangers. One remote island. A secret that binds them all. In Agatha Christie's masterpiece And Then There Were None, the world's best-selling mystery comes alive on stage, pulling you into a suspense-filled game of survival where no one can be trusted and everyone is a suspect. With each shocking twist and every haunting reveal, the tension mounts until the final, heart-stopping conclusion. Gripping, atmospheric, and utterly unforgettable, this classic whodunit will keep you on the edge of your seat from the first knock at the door to the last chilling moment.

MYSTERY, RATED PG-13

AND THEN THERE WERE NONE is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc. www.concordtheatricals.com
